The Power that Moves the World

FIRST ANNUAL TOUR

—OF—

D. McLENNAN

—OF—

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

THIS WONDERFUL MASTER OF THE Healing Art has arrived in the city, where he intends to remain for a short time, to cure the sick and afflicted of this vicinity. He comes to us laden with testimonials from the leading citizens of California and the Sound. In San Francisco he has practiced for the past sixteen years, and the authenticated reports of some of his cures seem nothing short of miraculous. He uses no medicine and perfects his cures mostly by the WONDERFUL POWER OF MAGNETISM, the gift of but few men on earth. This is the only method of treatment that restores the life-giving principle, magnetism, to the system, thereby increasing the vital powers and electrifying the nervous system, sending the blood coursing and bounding through the veins, withdrawing and allaying in a few minutes all pains and aches from whatever source.

The diseases which yield most readily to the curative agency of this method, as practiced by McLennan, are: Asthma, Bronchitis, Consumption, Deafness, Eruptions, Gravel, Paralysis, Loss of Voice, Wakefulness, Diarrhœa, Dropsy, Fits, Piles, Scrofula, Swellings, Wens, Spinal Complaint, Cold Feet and Hands, Biliousness, Contracted Limbs, Diseased Kidneys, Erysipelas, Nervous Depressions, St. Vitus's Dance, Weak and Failing Limbs, Mental Depressions, Diseases of the Brain, Dyspepsia, Diabetes, Stricture, Impotency, Tape Worm, Carbuncles, Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Liver Complaint, Seminal Weakness, Falling of the Womb, Catarrh, Heart Disease, Fever Sores, Lameness, Rheumatism, Swollen Joints, Weak Lungs, Gout, Goitre, Coughs, Diseases of the Eyes, Neuralgia, Tumors, Tetters, Cancers, White Swellings, Leucorrhœa, Ague and Fever, Milk Leg, etc.

CAPITAL NOTES.

The Warrant for the Extradition of Burke

Delayed Owing to the Non-Arrival of Necessary Documents.

A Lantern to be Placed on the Spit Buoy off Shoal Point in Victoria Harbor.

From our own Correspondent.

OTTAWA, July 20.—The probabilities are that the issue of the warrant for the extradition of Burke will be delayed owing to the non-arrival of the report relative to the habeas corpus proceedings.

The government has granted the American schooner Ida May permission to sell her cargo, of a perishable nature.

The Revenue Department has ordered the placing of a hand lantern at a five foot elevation on the spit buoy off Shoal Point, Victoria harbor.

THE LOAN BY-LAWS.

The Objects of the Proposed Loans Explained by Mayor Grant.

TO THE EDITOR:—I have been requested by the board of aldermen to present to the ratepayers a few facts, and the intentions of the board, anent their asking for power to borrow certain sums of money for corporation purposes.

First—It is absolutely necessary that the $70,000 by-law should pass, as the balance that was on hand out of the $75,000 loan by-law passed in 1886 has been expended on the 16-inch main, leaving a deficiency to complete that work of $41,000. Out of this last sum the Albion Iron Works Company will have to receive about $23,000, in addition to over $12,000 which has been drawn out of the general revenue fund to pay wages. This last sum was advanced so that the work might not come to a stand-still. The balance of the $41,000 will be required to pay wages now due and those which will accrue by the time the line of pipe shall have been covered. The balance of the $70,000, viz., $29,000, it is intended shall be expended in improving the reservoirs at the head works, in bringing the water directly from Elk lake into the filter beds without being passed through Beaver lake, which, no doubt, would be an important factor in providing the consumers with a better quality of water, and in extending a line of large pipe from the 16-inch main by way of Fernwood road to the higher levels.

The board of aldermen feel that many consumers have already derived much satisfaction through the increased supply that has been obtained during the last two weeks, although less than half of the capacity of the 16-inch main has been utilized up to the present time. The benefits that will be experienced when the new main shall have been discharging to its full capacity, will be still more appreciated, and will give the city a double guarantee against destruction by fire.

Second—The water distribution of this city was improved and extended during the last year by replacing large pipes for small ones, and the laying of a number of miles of new street mains, aggregating six and a quarter miles in all, at an expenditure, including maintenance, of $43,060.75. Before the distribution system can be said to be near perfect, so that all those desiring a water supply can be furnished with the necessary element, it will require a further expenditure of from $60,000 to $100,000. In this connection it is intended by the board to make the works still more efficient by laying larger street mains where only small ones are at present, with the object of giving a better supply both for domestic and fire purposes. Much has been done during the last year to make the city service a circulating one, so that all consumers could be supplied with a uniform quality of water. This is done by extending the dead ends to connect with other pipes. To make the distribution absolutely circulating a deal has yet to be done.

Everyone residing within the municipality is entitled to a supply of city water; therefore it is the duty of those who enjoy that benefit to assist others less fortunate to obtain a fair share of that blessing. Further, the board feel that they do not wish to be condemned for not providing proper means to control fire, as has been the case in Seattle. The verdict is with the ratepayers, and on them will rest the responsibility if the by-law should be defeated. The revenue derived from the new services placed during the last eighteen months will more than pay the interest and sinking fund on the loan asked for.

Third—The $25,000 which it is proposed to expend on Beacon Hill Park is for the purpose of carrying out in part the very handsome landscape design adopted by the aldermen. When it is considered how much has been done already by the expenditure of a small sum on that naturally beautiful recreation ground, it will be understood how much more could be accomplished if this sum is voted.

Fourth—The $15,000 asked for fire purposes ought not to require any explanation, as everyone knows that the more perfect that we can make the fire department of Victoria, the greater security there will be against fire. I ask the ratepayers to remember that without an efficient supply of water fire appliances are of but little use, as was very unfortunately demonstrated in Seattle a short time ago. Respectfully,

JOHN GRANT,
Mayor.

THE RAGING ELEMENTS

Carry Death and Destruction in Their Path.

Houses Picked Up by the Wind and Dashed Against Each Other—Many Lives Reported Lost.

NEW YORK, July 20.—News comes from many points throughout the country of destructive storms that have prevailed within the last thirty-six hours in Ohio and West Virginia. A grand electrical display accompanied the downpour in Chicago, where the torrents of rain flooded the lower stores and many business houses, and did great damage to property. The atmospheric disturbances extended from Grand Forks, Neb., to New Orleans. Many persons were struck by lightning and houses and barns were burned. The damage in the neighborhood of this city was not great, though two slight railroad washouts occurred. Despatches from West Virginia state that a cloud burst completely flooded little Kanawha valley, destroying many lives and carrying off thousands of dollars worth of property. The village of Morristown was completely destroyed. Houses were picked up by the whirling wind and dashed against each other, giving the inhabitants no chance to escape.

JOURNALISTS ON A HOLIDAY.

The Members of the Nebraska Press Association Visit Victoria.

On the 6th of July, 62 ladies and gentlemen, composing the northwestern excursion party of the Nebraska Press Association, in charge of Chairman L. Wessel, Jr., of the Capital City Courier, of Lincoln, left Omaha on a visit to the Pacific Coast. Their trip was for rest and pleasure, combined with the large amount of information to be gathered in visiting new places and people.

Coming over the rails of the Union Pacific, the excursionists passed from Omaha to Denver, then to Cheyenne, thence to Ogden, Salt Lake City and Portland, Ore.

After spending a day in Portland, the party branched off for a trip down the Willamette Valley, returning to Portland, and going from Portland to Tacoma.

Yesterday morning they left Portland and last evening arrived by the North Pacific in Victoria. They had telegraphed to secure rooms at the Driard, but owing to the house being crowded with guests already, could not be accommodated. Half of the party, with their chairman, secured rooms at the Clarence; the others were accommodated at the Oriental.

As all were thoroughly tired last evening, they left all the sight-seeing for to-day, when they will visit all the places of interest in and around the city and enjoy a drive to the Gorge and Esquimalt.

On Monday morning the tourists will return to Tacoma, pass on to Portland and Astoria, and from there proceed direct to their homes.

The edifice was crowded to overflowing and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed, and Lord Aberdeen presided. Parnell was warmly cheered, the immense audience rising to their feet and yelling like mad. Deputations of all liberal societies of Scotland presented him with addresses. A letter from Gladstone was read by Lord Aberdeen, in which the great Liberal leader said: "The time has not yet arrived for dealing with the memorable experience of Parnell for the last two years. I believe that experience to be unparalleled in the history of British statesmen in parliament in the past two centuries.

Parnell at Edinburgh.

EDINBURGH, July 20.—Parnell, in accepting the freedom of the city, presented to him to-day, said that the Irish accept this tribute as another proof of the near approach of the triumph of their legitimate aspirations for freedom. Speaking of the Parnell commission and the refusal of Judge Hannen to admit the evidence offered by the Irish party to establish the origin of the Pigott forgeries, Parnell's language was guarded. He merely said that if he had known that the commission would block any inquiry into this matter, he would never have entered court.

CANADIAN NEWS.

The Export Duty on Canadian Saw Logs.

Its Legality to be Tested by a Michigan Lumberman During the Present Season.

OTTAWA, July 20.—The Dominion government has been notified that R. C. Gibbs, timberman, of Manistee, Mich., intends this season to test the legality of Canada's action in imposing an export duty on Canadian saw logs. The duty was levied by the Dominion government for the prevention of the depletion of Canadian forests. Gibbs' firm intend bringing twenty-eight million feet of Georgian Bay logs to Bay City for sawing. They contend that by the united Gough treaty between the U. S. and Canada, signed in 1855, they will not have to pay the duty of $6 per 1000 feet. The restitution of duties already paid is also talked of. A careful investigation of the case discloses the fact that the treaty placing all kinds of lumber on the free list was adopted in 1854, but was terminated in 1866 by the United States. Upon enquiry at the customs department it was learned that Canada could not be held responsible, as the United States had themselves terminated the treaty in question.

(From the Columbian.)

Charles McCallum, the man who was run over and dangerously hurt, near Ten-Mile bridge, last Saturday, is reported to be mending slowly, and Dr. Hall now considers his recovery certain.

The bush fires all along the coast are extending considerably, and unless rain comes soon they are bound to do much damage to valuable timber lands. The smoke is also likely to interrupt navigation if it becomes much more dense.

Twenty lunatics were removed from the asylum to-day to the provincial jail, where they will remain until the addition to the asylum building is completed.

Under instructions from Rev. Father McGuicken, Mr. G. W. Grant, the architect, is now preparing plans for three blocks of dwellings to be erected on the church property, corner of Royal and Clement streets. There will be three buildings in each block and the whole will cover a space of 198 feet x 132 feet.

W. R. Higgins and wife returned from Whatcom last evening via Tacoma and Seattle. Mr. Higgins says the growth of the Sound country in the last two years is something marvellous. At Whatcom quite a large and thriving town has sprung up. Three steamers run there every day from Seattle with crowds of passengers. Ship Harbor was also visited by Mr. Higgins, and he says land is held at such high figures as to be almost beyond the reach of small speculators. This rise is due to the fact that a large number of men are there breaking ground for the railway.

OAKLAND, Cal., July 20.—The Evening Enquirer asserts, on good authority, that the will of Thos. H. Blythe, the dead millionaire, whose will is now being contested in the probate court at San Francisco, has been found in Los Angeles, and that one of the attorneys has gone there to secure possession of it. It is stated that the property is all left, with the exception of about $100,000, to Florence Blythe, who, it is claimed, is Blythe's illegitimate daughter.

AMERICAN NEWS.

A Disastrous Excursion.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 20.—The excursion steamer St. Nicholas, having a large party on board, came into collision with a closed drawbridge over St. Augustine Creek, four miles south of this city, to-night. The forward part of the steamer was demolished. A colored excursion party, numbering 500, was on board. Two women were killed outright, and thirty others, men, women and children, were injured, some believed to be fatally. The pilot of the boat says that he signalled the bridge tender to open the draw-bridge, but that he paid no attention and did not signal that the draw was closed until the St. Nicholas was only a short distance from the bridge, and when it was too late to stop the boat. Everything possible was done to avoid the accident. The steamer's engines were reversed, but the movement of the boat could not be checked. The pilot house and upper deck was carried away and the hurricane deck crashed down on the people below, burying them under its weight. The steamer was headed about and returned to this city, where the wounded received medical attention. Great excitement prevailed among the colored people when the news of the accident spread, and thousands of anxious friends lined the wharf.

The Behring's Sea Matter.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—It is reported that Sir Julian Pauncefote takes back with him the rough draft of an agreement between Great Britain and this country, covering the Canadian and Behring's Sea questions, which, if consummated, will settle them for some time to come. Greece Preparing for the Great European War

Which Must Inevitably Occur Within the Next Three Years.

The Subject of a Balkan Federation Again Discussed—The Alliance Between Servia and Greece.

[Copyrighted by the U. P. A.]

LONDON, July 20.—The activity at present being displayed by the various army and navy departments of the Central European powers and the Balkan States, has again brought forward the subject of a Balkan federation, so dear to political idealists. Sundry newspaper paragraphs appear from day to day regarding an alleged alliance between Servia and Greece. Indeed, to their friends at a distance, nothing seems more natural and feasible than that the different states of the Balkan peninsula should form a league for common defence. In the present condition of national rivalries it is well night impossible for the Slavonic elements of the peninsula to unite for a common object. That the Slav and Greek and Roumanian should form a league among themselves is about as probable as a Franco-German alliance. As to the attitude of the Greek government on this subject, the following information from the fountain head ought to satisfy the most skeptical regarding the matter: In a recent conversation with your correspondent, who ventured to remark what a pity it was that the nearer one approached the scene of action the more impracticable appeared any form of agreement among the Balkans, M. Trikoupis, premier of Greece, said: "I do not even see that it is a pity to form a federation. There must be something to gain by it; but what have we to gain except from one another. The Greeks and Bulgarians in Macedonia sooner or later." "Greece," continued M. Trikoupis, "is at present the only power in the Balkan Peninsula capable of pursuing an independant course. Roumania is asking what will become of her in the event of another great war. Servia, since the occupation of Bosnia, is in the grip of Austria. Why should we compromise our liberty of action by allying ourselves with states that are bound down hand and foot by their powerful neighbors? Our own position is quite different. Supposing Austria, for instance, were to tell us that she objected to any action on our part. We should simply tell her that we suited ourselves. The only power that can really interfere with us is England; but the English government will not put itself out of the way to harm us. In 1878 they prevented us from joining against the Turks, but we were not really ready at the time of the Bulgarian annexation of eastern Roumania. Again England interfered in conjunction with other powers, but even had the power not intervened we never should have acted. The whole affair of the blockade was a diplomatic muddle. I myself was opposed to the action then, as it could not have been effective, and it was better, therefore, to bide our time; but foreign coercion put the opponents of war, who would otherwise have gained the day, by themselves, in an awkward position." The conversation then turned on eventualities, and your correspondent remarked that the prospect of English intervention on behalf of the Turks was growing more and more remote. "You are mistaken," rejoined Trikoupis. "Certainly the English Government will not go out of its way to land an expeditionary force, but

MUST FIGHT IT OUT

THE NAVAL QUESTION

Is quite different. An action at sea costs you nothing. You see, a fleet must be somewhere, and it is as easy for it to be at Piereus as at Malta, and besides, we know for a fact that an understanding exists between the British and Italian governments respecting the balance of power in the Mediterranean. I am perfectly aware that it was denied in Parliament that any such agreement existed, but the very denial was made in such terms as only to corroborate the fact that for practical purposes an agreement does actually exist. It is a verbal understanding, maybe, but still an understanding. Of that fact, indeed, we have other evidence." When asked if he though England would prevent the Greeks from occupying Crete, M. Trikoupis said: "Although the former coercive action of England against Greece was not by any means popular in England, the present English government was quite prepared to repeal a coercive policy against Greece if the occasion arose." M. Trikoupis had a high opinion of the toughness shown by the Bulgarians as people in the prolonged crisis through which they have passed. He did not believe, however, that the position of Prince Ferdinand was likely to be durable, or that Russian influence could in the long run be prevented from reasserting itself. He considered, indeed, that the anti-Russian attitude of M. Stambouloff has always been counter to the secret inclinations of the numerical majority of the Bulgarians, and it was this fact that made his long continuance in office more remarkable. With regard to Macedonia, M. Trikoupis said Turkey is going almost too fast. When as it inevitably must within the next few years, Macedonia will belong to the Greeks or to Bulgaria, according as one or other wins. If the Bulgarians take it, I do not doubt that in a few years they will be able to slavonize the population upon the border. If we take it we shall be able to make the people Greeks right away. To Eastern Roumelia the bulk of the inhabitants have no pronounced leaning. They are ready to receive whatever stamp is impressed upon them. Meanwhile, as the great crisis in its destinies is drawing nearer and nearer, Greece is arming as best it may. Great attention is being paid to naval preparations, and three new ironclads are this moment in course of construction for the Greek Government in French docks.

ALDERMANIC EXPLANATIONS.

The explanations with regard to the progress of the water works may not be regarded by some of the citizens as sufficient or satisfactory. They may think that more money has been spent than has been necessary, and that the work has not been managed as judiciously as it might have been. But there is nothing to be gained by lamenting over what is done beyond recall. Nothing that can be said will bring back the money that has been spent unnecessarily, or can correct the mistakes that have been made. What can be done is to take measures to prevent a repetition of past blunders.

It cannot be denied that the improvement of the water works is an absolute necessity. The city's supply of water must not be inadequate, and it must be distributed with an intelligent regard to the wants, ordinary and extraordinary, of its different parts. It must also be admitted that the debts already contracted must be paid. This must be done whether these debts have been wisely or unwisely contracted. The credit of the city requires that it promptly discharge all its legal obligations.

For those reasons we believe that it is best for the citizens to pass the by-laws that relate to the water-works. The corporation ought to have money to go on with the work and to pay what it owes. The improvement of the water-works cannot be delayed. The citizens need a good water supply every hour of every day, and exigencies may arise at any hour which would make the consequences of delay ruinous.

There is nothing to hinder the ratepayers requiring a pledge from the Board of Aldermen that wasteful methods be not continued, and that the work shall be rapidly yet economically carried out as long as they remain in office; and there is also nothing to prevent them, if they are not satisfied with the way in which the present board performs its duties, in a few months, electing other and, as they consider, better men to fill their places. But the water-works should not be stopped until after a new election is held, neither should those to whom the city is indebted have to wait for their money.

The floating debt is already a great deal too large, and the effects of delay in passing the by-laws will be to make it still greater. The work of the corporation must go on, and those whom it employs must be paid. We therefore cannot see that any good purpose will be served by refusing to sanction the water-works by-laws on Tuesday.

It must not be forgotten too that the water-works are more than self-sustaining, and that the improvements will bring in additional revenue and add to their permanent value. They are good property, and it is wise to keep them in the best working order.

Money is required to improve the fire department. It should be made in every respect more effective. The Chief Engineer tells us what the money is wanted for and no one will, we think, say that the proposed addition to its equipment is not necessary. The sum required is comparatively small and we think that the Corporation if they get the money will not be likely either to waste it or to make a bad use of it.

The way in which the Board of Aldermen has managed the Park has evidently given general satisfaction, and the proposed improvements are believed to be required. No great harm would, we suppose, follow rejecting the Park bylaw, but we cannot see what advantage is to be gained by refusing to sanction it at once. Since the improvements are to be made, we believe it is as well to raise the money necessary to effect them now as some months hence. The conclusion that we have come to is that, all things considered, it is as well to give the Corporation the power to borrow the money it wants to make the improvements, that all admit to be necessary, now as some months hence.

NORTHERN EXTENSION.

Capt. Hunter's account of the extraordinary increase that has taken place within the last few years in Alaskan trade and travel, and his well-grounded calculations as to their dimensions in the future, show the importance of extending the Island railroad to Port Rupert or some harbor still further north in a very clear light. The extension would serve two purposes—it would very materially aid in developing the resources of the Island of Vancouver, and it would make a long and a very important link in a short, safe and pleasant route to Alaska. With a short line of road from Portland to Crescent Bay, a ferry thence to Beecher Bay and a few miles of road from that point to Victoria the route would be complete. By that route Alaska would be only six days' travel from San Francisco and nine days from New York. As Captain Hunter says, and as all shrewd observers predict, that extraordinary country and the cool nooks that are to be found all along the route "will be the greatest summer resorts for tourists in the world." All that is needed to accomplish that end is to have the country well known, and to afford those seeking change and rest and coolness the necessary facilities for travel. The Island railway will give a delightful variety to the trip. The scenery is wildly, and, in places, grandly beautiful, and the summer weather to those escaping from the suffocating and enervating heat of eastern and southern cities, simply heavenly. From San Francisco to the north of Vancouver Island, with the exception of a narrow ferry of 12 miles across the Strait of Fuca, the trip would be by rail. The voyage from that to Alaska is through a quiet sea, studded with islands, and would be very pleasant indeed, and not too long. The tourists would have all the pleasures of an ocean voyage, with none of its monotony and consequent tedium. The road to be built on the Island would be from Beecher Bay to Victoria —17 miles. The road from this city to Wellington already constructed is 79 miles; from there to Comox, a section which is certain to be built in the near future, is 62 miles, and from Comox to Fort Rupert is 198 miles. This makes the length of new road to be constructed from Beecher Bay to Fort Rupert 277 miles.

The construction of the Canada Western road will make the building of a very considerable portion of Island extension before very long a necessity. So that the part of it to be constructed for the opening up of the northern end of the island, and for the Alaskan route solely, will be considerably less than 200 miles. We believe that the time is not far distant when men of enterprise will find that the development of the resources and the trade of British Columbia will require the extension of the Island road to the northern end of the island, and when they do so they will receive all the encouragement which the government of the province and that of the Dominion can extend to their project. It is, we are satisfied, a most promising one and will in time realize all the expectations of its most sanguine advocates.

A WARNING.

The report of the committee of fire insurance adjusters appointed to investigate matters connected with the great Seattle fire is edifying if it is not pleasant reading. It shows very clearly what are the results of neglect, carelessness and want of foresight. If the authorities of the Sound city had taken the precautions which common sense and prudence dictated, means would have been at hand to have arrested the flames before the fire got beyond control.

The adjustors were naturally surprised, and no doubt disgusted, to find that millions of dollars worth of valuable property was destroyed through what appeared to them to be gross stupidity and sheer recklessness. The want of some simple means of utilizing the water of the harbor for the purpose of extinguishing fire struck them with amazement. They saw "a large city nearly surrounded by water, with appliances for using it, yet yielding unresistingly to the flames for lack of water, which could not be reached." There was water, water everywhere, but not a drop to put on the burning buildings. The structures along the water front, instead of being the safest in the city, were, for want of a very simple and inexpensive precaution, the most insecure. It ought to have been the easiest thing in the world to have deluged those buildings with water, but instead of that the inexhaustible supply of water that was within a few feet of the firemen could not be reached. Was there ever a greater reproach on the intelligence of a people pretending to be civilized than this?

It is worth while to enquire if Victoria is in any better condition. If a fire were unfortunately to break out on Wharf street, could the water of the harbor be made available for extinguishing it without a minute's delay? Is the safety of the buildings on that street dependent on the supply of water from pipes that would be certain to give out if the fire were to last more than a few minutes?

Nothing is more disheartening and exasperating than to see a fine building burning to the ground, while the engines are idle because the supply of water has given out. From what we have heard there is good reason to believe that the distribution pipes in many of the streets are of altogether too small a capacity to supply water enough to quench anything like a large fire. What happened in Seattle would, in all probability, happen here, if a large fire was allowed to get much headway. There would not be enough water to supply the engines, and they would have to be idle when they were most needed.

Our readers will see the absolute necessity of having the distribution pipes large enough, not only to give a plentiful supply for domestic and manufacturing purposes, but to meet the requirements of a large fire. There is no telling to-day when water will be wanted for this purpose, and our citizens, if they are wise, will do all that is necessary to provide against what recent events in various places, not far off, have shown, is not by any means an improbable contingency.

The citizens of Victoria cannot be too deeply impressed with the importance of having ample means at hand for the extinguishment of fires. Both the water supply and the Fire Brigade should be in a condition which the most prudent will deem satisfactory. Money spent for this purpose under wise direction is prudently laid out. There should be no waste, and money should not be lost through any form of dishonesty. The city should have full value for every dollar it spends. We trust it will never have to be said of the corporation of Victoria, as has been said of the city government of Seattle: "Had the authorities given more time to the discharge of their official duties and a little less to their personal affairs, they would have profited by the warnings of underwriters and the appeals of the local press, and the city of whose interests they undertook the guardianship would not be to-day in ashes." A word to the wise is sufficient.

KOOTENAY LAKE.

Mining News—Necessity for a Wagon Road to Sproat's Landing—Better Mail Facilities Needed.

Kootenay Lake, July 14th, 1889.

To THE EDITOR:—Things are moving along pretty lively in the two mining camps on this lake, Nelson and Ainsworth. Every steamer now goes out with large piles of ore stacked upon its decks. The mines which are now shipping regularly are the Hall's mine at Toad Mountain, the No. 1 Little Donald, Krao and Delhi, a new find situated near the No. 1, and just sold to a party of Spokane capitalists for $16,000. Two or three other mines at Hot Springs Camp will soon be added to the list.

The universal cry here is for an outlet to the Columbia River by a wagon road from Nelson to Sproat's Landing. This will place the miners in a position to ship ore to Revelstoke as cheaply as to the Northern Pacific Railway at Kootenai station. It is reported that Spokane parties will build this road and wait for their pay till the government can make appropriations next year. This road will free our mining men from the fear which now exists, that the American authorities intend to shut out our lead ore by exhorbitant taxation.

Buchanan's new sawmill is about completed, and lumber will soon be available at moderate prices. Each of the towns here will move on more rapidly when this is started.

The editor of Donald Truth has visited the camp here, and is confirmed in his plan of moving his paper to Nelson. He thinks the future prospects of the district are very fine. The new gold commissioner, Mr. Tunstall, has also made a trip, and will go out to report the requirements of the camps to the government. He has been very warmly received, and his off hand manner and evident desire to advance the country have created an extremely favorable impression.

If our mail facilities here were regular and speedy you might expect regular correspondence from this section, but a letter now is often a month coming from Kamloops to this place, and has hitherto been carried by steamers as freight and by pack trains free. The new contracts given by the postal authorities are only for a semi-monthly mail on the Columbia River. This service is quite inadequate to our wants. Can't you stir up the postal authorities?

Yours truly,

THEATRICAL HUMBUGS.

To THE EDITOR:—For a second time within a brief period theatre-goers in Victoria have been humbugged by a company of strolling players who must have known when they made the announcements that they could not open at the hour advertised or give a satisfactory performance in consequence of the late hour at which the boats get in. To advertise that the performance will begin at 8, when it is known that the boat will not reach the dock until 9 o'clock, smacks strongly of obtaining the public's money under false pretences, and I am sure the agents and managers are liable to be prosecuted.

The next company that happens along under the same auspices as the Clay and Vickers' companies, I intend to leave alone. One troupe ought to be boycotted and the outrage will not be repeated by those who may come after.

CONDENSED DESPATCHES.

Patrick McNamara, a shoemaker, was struck by a train while walking on the track near Calgary. He received a terrible scalp-wound, laying bare the skull.

Fred. Cox, driver of the Dominion Express Co., at Brantford, Ont., was killed in a hardware store yesterday, while examining a revolver in the hands of a clerk named Lawrence.

A. T. Gillis, of Boisevain, has been arrest at Winnipeg for arson. It is alleged that he fired his store on the night of the 8th inst., his stock being heavily insured. He was taken to the Brandon jail.

Accounts of a terrible tragedy in the county of Berthier have reached Montreal. A Montreal peddler named Pierre arrived there, and put up at the house of a friend named Lambert, the only occupant of the house being a fifteen-year-old daughter, the rest of the family having left for Montreal. During the night two masked men demanded admission into the house. Pierre fired on them, killing both, when it turned out that the dead men were father and son, neighbors, who were indulging in a practical joke.

The Norwegian bark Criagellian has arrived at Quebec with two American fishermen, Samuel Smith and Samuel Hutchison, who were lost in a fog from the fishing schooner Carleton Bell of Booth bay, Maine. They floated around for five days and four nights. They had only about a quart of water in a tin and a raw fish. On the fourth day their limbs began to swell and also their tongues, and they took to sucking the lead sinkers of their lines. When picked up they were barely able to crawl.

We wish him a full measure of success.

A Harvest for Fishermen.

An immense run of salmon made their appearance off Albert Head yesterday, and are at present affording the best of sport for Victoria fishermen, who have hastened to the spot. The fish are chasing the sardines, moving rapidly in the direction of the Fraser, where they will probably arrive about Tuesday. Among the heavy fish caught yesterday was one which tipped the beam at 38 pounds.

In the meantime the Yosemite will take the Islander's route, and the Premier will cancel one trip.

A Nuisance at Ross Bay.

An indignant protest comes from a number of visitors to Ross Bay cemetery, who state that there are at present three dead horses lying on the beach at the lower end of the graveyard, and rotting in the sun. The stench arising from the decomposing bodies is sickening, and it is to be hoped that the proper authorities will at once remove the cause. One of the horses was lead out on the new wharf and shot, a few days ago, and the body has since floated ashore.

No News.

The sealing schooner Aurora, built a couple of years ago at Plumpers Pass, arrived yesterday from Kodiak, having made the run down in the very quick time of fifteen days. Capt. Adolphe says that he did not see any of the Victoria schooners on the trip, and only sighted two American craft going up, whose names he did not know. This is the Aurora's second trip this season. On the first trip she secured a trifle over 300 skins, and this time she returns with about 500, so that her entire catch so far this season amounts to about 800 seals.

The Police Blotter.

In the city police court yesterday, Hon. A. N. Richards, P. M., presiding, Samuel Gray was charged with an infraction of the Thistle By-law. It was shown that the accused had sent a man to cut down the objectionable thistles, and the man by mistake cut the thistles on the wrong lot. The case was dismissed, Mr. Gray paying the costs.

The case against the proprietor of the White Horse hotel, on remand charged with conniving at the sale of liquor to Indians, was dismissed.

The case of Samuel Pearse, charged with embezzlement, was again remanded until Monday.

The Anthracite Coal Mines.

Mr. J. L. Mudge, assistant general manager of the Anthracite Coal Co., who arrived at Vancouver on Friday, informed the News-Advertiser that it was true that a number of English capitalists had secured an interest in the company, and the stock would be increased very largely, perhaps to the extent of $5,000,000. Representatives of the English syndicate will be in St. Paul next month, and will arrange the final details of the transaction. Mr. Mudge says that the work of development is going on rapidly at the mines, and in the meantime they are supplying all their old customers.

An Improved Colonist Car.

The Northern Pacific has received twenty new colonist sleepers, which are to be put in service on through trains this month. They are models of beauty, from Barney & Smith, and contain many improvements over colonist sleepers now in use. Each car has fourteen sections, with gentlemen's toilet rooms in one end and ladies' room in the other. In one end is the Baker fire-proof heater, which heats the car by means of hot water, conducted through pipes. In the opposite end is a wrought-iron range, surrounded by good kitchen facilities. The car is finished in ash, maple and butternut, beautifully polished. The sections are divided by sliding head-boards, effecting a privacy not possible in those now in use, where sections are separated by wire netting. An ingenious arrangement of the seats enables them to be extended flat or with head rest when prepared for bedding, and each seat is provided with a box, in which can be stored bedding or small baggage. In each section also is provided a table similar to those used in Pullman cars. The ladies' toilet-room is supplied with marble-top wash stand and force pump, and the berths have safety chains. Each car has a porter.—Lewis & Dryden's Railway Guide.

Itinerant Fortune-Tellers.

The attention of the police is directed to a couple of itinerant fortune-tellers, who go from house to house plying their calling and making themselves a decided nuisance. Like all people of their class, the two referred to are cheeky and impertinent, and in some cases, when their knock is not answered, they open the doors of the dwelling and boldly walk in, as happened yesterday, to the extreme annoyance of the lady of the house. If the pair were lodged in jail for a term they might learn better manners and turn their attention to some more honest method of earning a living.

A Week of Comedy.

On Monday (to-morrow) evening the Chicago Comedy Company open a week's engagement at Philharmonic Hall. Mr. Goldstein, their manager, has spent several days in the city, making arrangements for the appearance of the company, and nothing has been left undone that would ensure a thoroughly satisfactory performance on each and every night. The company have played to good business in every town and city visited this season, and wherever they have been the press speaks well of them. To-morrow evening's bill will be "The Diamond Mystery," a thrilling, sensational comedy-drama. Popular Eastern prices—10c., 20c. and 30c.—will be charged, and no doubt Philharmonic Hall will be crowded.

BEACON HILL PARK.

A Few Notes About the Improvements Contemplated, and Under Way.

Every day sees some new improvment at Beacon Hill park. Every day something fresh is added to increase the attractions of Victoria's most popular afternoon resort. There have been more improvements made during the last six months, than in the previous thirty years. Just now very rapid progress is being made with the new lake, which will be ready for the water in a few weeks. This lake, five acres in area, will be connected with Alderman Lake, from which the water supply will be drawn, by a serpentine stream crossed by rustic bridges, and descending from the higher to the lower lake by a series of miniature water falls.

The lake now being built is to be dotted with flower-covered islands, and stocked with swans and fancy water fowl, while a Venetian gondola will be placed on the water for the pleasure of the public.

Between the two lakes, and intersected by winding walks and carriage drives, will be the City Zoological Garden, already possessing a good number of attractions. The menagerie now consists of six fine deer, a bear and a wolf. During the present week are to be added the hybrid deer-sheep from Salt Spring Island, an eagle and two young swans, besides a number of pheasants. There have also been promised several mountain sheep, further additions to the deer park, a seal and a sea lion. With the attractions already possessed, the Zoo will, at a very early date, be a place well worth a visit, and a favorite resort for citizens or strangers.

Scattered through the park, under the big trees and by the side of the stream or lake, will be rustic seats, drinking fountains, and the hundreds of other little things that make a public park complete.

New carriage roads are being opened in the yet uncleared part of the park lying between the main drive and "C" battery barracks; and this section it is intended to lay out in an immense flower garden. When the improvements are complete, owing to its situation and the view it commands, this part of the park must become one of its most attractive corners. There is, of course, much to be done to make the park just what it should be, but it has the advantage of a situation for scenic beauty unsurpassed in the world, and the city aldermen have gone about the perfection of what nature has already done in the proper manner by calling for suitable plans which are now on view at the city hall and carrying out all the improvements in accordance with them.

MAPLE LEAFS VS. JAMES BAYS.

The tenth game of the Victoria Baseball League series took place yesterday afternoon at Beacon Hill, and attracted a large number of spectators. The game was a most interesting one, there being some very good play from both sides, although the James Bays made a number of costly errors in the latter part of the game. The first six innings were exciting, at that time the score standing 8 to 8. In the first half of the seventh, however, the Maple Leafs made seven runs by batting Jackson hard and often. The batting honors were carried off by Duck and Geo. Gowen, with Meldrum, Mills and Franklin well up. Duck made a magnificent drive to left field. The innings left too big a gap for the James Bays to close up, and in their subsequent play they seemed disheartened. However, they succeeded in placing two more runs to their credit in the eighth innings. The Maple Leafs did not go to bat in the ninth, the score standing 17 to 10 in their favor. Mills pitched a good game for the Maple Leafs, though he gave five men their base by hitting them with the ball. Jackson was not in good form yesterday, and the batters struck the sphere freely. The field work of the James Bays in the latter part of the game was not at all satisfactory and several wild throws and failures to pick up the ball promptly gave their opponents chances of which every advantage was taken.

The game was a most enjoyable one, the objectionable features of the previous Saturday being altogether absent. H. Wootten umpired with fairness to all, and the spectators applauded his efforts to make matters move smoothly. Following is the score:

CRICKET.

The cricket match played at Beacon Hill yesterday afternoon between elevens chosen from the United Service and the Victoria Cricket Club, resulted in an easy victory for the United Service, who scored 190 runs to their opponents 79. The match was evidently won owing to B. Sergt.-Major Sinclair's exceptionally good batting and the wretched fielding of the members of the club eleven. Following is the score:—

THE RIFLE.

The Victoria Rifle Association held their first regular practice yesterday afternoon on the Clover Point range, only a few members turning out. The shooting was very good, considering that it was the first practice with the long Snider; and the somewhat variable wind, which at times was blowing half a gale. Marksmen who visit the range know the difficulties to encounter and never expect to see a dead calm at Clover Point. But one man used the short Snider and with the usual result in a high wind at the long ranges. Persons desirous of joining the Victoria Rifle Association may do so by depositing the sum of $3.50 with the secretary, B. Williams, which will entitle them to use the Clover Point range on the regular practice days, Wednesdays and Saturdays. The following are the scores:

LACROSSE.

According to reports from Vancouver the lacrosse team there is putting in some hard practice, taking long runs, and going through a regular course of training. The Victorians must go and do likewise. The match promises to be a first-class one, and no doubt there will be an immense crowd out on Saturday next to witness Canada's national game. No arrangements could be effected to have the game played on the Caledonian grounds, consequently it will be played on the Hill as formerly.

STARS VS. THISTLES.

A second baseball match was played at the Park yesterday, the contestants being the Stars and Thistles. Some very good play was made by both nines, but the superiority of the Stars was evident, and they came out victors by 10 runs, with an inning to spare. The score was: Stars 20; Thistles 10. Turple and McConnell were the Star battery and Vigelius and Smith acted for the Thistles.

WATSON WINS.

A good sized crowd was on hand on Beacon Hill at 7 o'clock last evening to witness the 300-yard foot race for $50 a side between Watson, of this city, and Irving, of Vancouver. Both men were in good training, and the race proved a keen one. The Victoria boy, however, proved himself the fastest man, winning the race with very little to spare in 35½ seconds.

Attempted Highway Robbery at Vancouver.

A determined attempt at highway robbery was made on Friday evening about seven o'clock by two men on the Hastings Road, Vancouver. At the hour named Mr. Johnson, the proprietor of the Retreat saloon, was driving home from Hastings accompanied by his wife. When near the most easterly of what are known as the "Three Bridges" on the road a short distance beyond the brewery, two men were met, who ordered him to stop and threatened him, demanding his money. Mrs. Johnson attempted to get out of the buggy and take refuge in another vehicle which came along, but the men prevented this. The noise and shouts attracted the attention of a man at the brewery, who went to the rescue as did also a milkman who happened to be passing. Thus reinforced, one of the would-robbers was severely handled and received a good thrashing. In the scuffle he drew a knife and inflicted two ugly, though not dangerous, wounds on the neck of the man from the brewery. By some means or other both the men were allowed to escape.

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitudes of low test short-weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 107 Wall Street, New York. au15-1y
